THE ARROWHEAD

1954

PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF

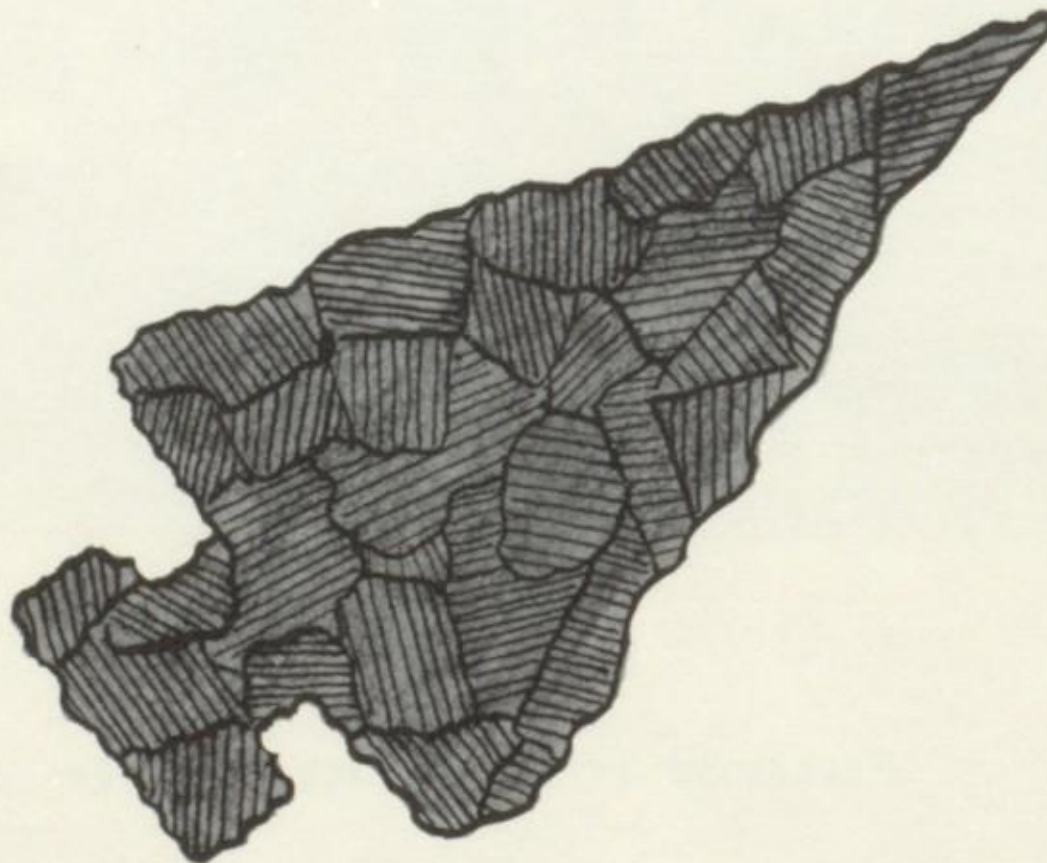

SENECA-GORHAM-POTTER CENTRAL SCHOOL

GORHAM, N. Y.

FOREWORD

With the motto "Liberty of thought is the life of the soul," we present the 1954 Arrowhead as the final reminder of our school days at Gorham.

Many hours of work and timely preparation have been spent to prepare the Senior's greatest production—the 1954 ARROWHEAD.

DEDICATION

Isobel Skellett

John Smingler

The Senior Class of 1954, in the highest regard and most sincere manner, wishes to dedicate this yearbook to Isobel Skellett and John Smingler who have served us these past years with inspiration and guidance. Their contributions will be long remembered as we step out into the world.

The Student Council for the year 1953-1954 consisted of a president and representatives from each class.

With Mrs. Skellett as our advisor, we successfully administered the proctoring system of supervision in the halls, in the library, and on the buses. We also sponsored dancing every Monday activity period in the gym.

At the fall meeting of the Ontario County Student Council Association, Darrell Weichenthal and Jean VanWagner were elected president and secretary of the association.

One of the big events of the year was the Student Day which was held for the first time, February 11, 1954.

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1950, a green group of twenty-nine young boys and girls boarded the G.C.H.S., a long distance train, with Miss Brinsmaid and Mr. Shanklin as engineer and fireman.

The leader and president of our class was Darrell Weichenthal. Kay Henry was vice-president, Jean Van Wagner was secretary, and Shirley Stickler was treasurer. Lyman Wood and Beverly Bickel represented us in the student government aboard old G.C.H.S.

Our group set out into the sports field in full swing by placing seven on the J. V. and Varsity baseball teams and three on the J. V. basketball team. About fifty per cent of our class also participated in various musical activities.

At the annual prom, Karl Perry and Shirley Stickler were elected as Lord and Lady of the royal family. A bake sale was our last class activity, as June came around the corner.

It was now the end of June and our train had to stop to refuel and be repaired. We all rejoiced when the news came through from the big bosses that we were now promoted to Sophomores and would soon take over the Sophomore car.

In September, 1951, we again boarded the train, but in a new and better car. Three of our original group missed the train and never rejoined us. Miss Kreutter and Mr. Favitta took over the job as engineer and fireman to guide us on our way.

Kay Henry took over the post as leader of our class, with Bob Ellis as vice-president, Lyman Wood as secretary, and Charles McWilliams as treasurer. Karl Perry and Beverly Bickel represented our group in the student government.

Stepping up in sports, we placed three on the Varsity basketball team, two on the J. V. team, and one girl on the J. V. cheerleading squad. We also placed five members on the Varsity baseball team. Once again about fifty per cent of our class participated in musical activities.

One of our biggest events was our round and square dance. At the annual ball Bob Ellis and Connie Clark were elected to the royal family as Duke and Duchess. Again June rolled around, almost too soon, and we had to stop again for refueling and repairs. We were all happy when we received the news that we were promoted to the Junior car and were full fledged Juniors now.

In June, 1952, we returned with one less in our class, leaving only twenty-five. Mrs. Skellett and Mr. Smingler took over the jobs as engineer and fireman to guide us further on the road to success.

The leadership of our class was turned over to Jean VanWagner, with Beverly Bickel as vice-president, Lyman Wood as secretary, Jim Norsen as treasurer, and Kay Henry as class historian. In student government we made another advance, electing Darrell Weichenthal to the office of vice-president, with Kay Henry, Jean VanWagner, and Karl Perry representing our class, giving us a total membership of four.

In sports we kept pace by placing three on both the J. V. and the Varsity basketball teams, five on the Varsity baseball team, and two girls on the Varsity cheerleading squad. Once again our class participation in musical activities was about fifty per cent.

We had many activities this year, including two big dances. One was a round and square dance and the other was the biggest event of the year, our Junior Prom, "Rhapsody in Blue." Babe Polmanteer and Jean VanWagner received the honor of being Prince and Princess of the royal family. This year we also had two bake sales—the first in November and the second at the end of the year in June. We made our third stop for refueling and repairs. We were promoted to Seniors and prospective leaders of the future.

In September, 1953, twenty-five of us boarded the train with the next stop to be our destination. This time we had the largest and most glorious car of the group. Mrs. Skellett and Mr. Smingler remained with us as engineer and fireman.

Lorraine Youngs took over the leadership of our group, with Karl Perry as vice-president, Martha Gifford as secretary, Jim Norsen as treasurer, and Jean VanWagner as historian. Darrell Weichenthal was elected president of the student council and Lorraine Youngs, Jean VanWagner, and Lyman Wood represented our class, giving us a total membership of four.

There were many great events during this year. One was the Senior Play, "Mr. Barry's Etchings", which was a big success and proved that we have some actors and actresses in our group. Two dances were held, the first in October, the second was our Senior Ball, "Dreamer's Holiday". Bruce Depew and Janet Hamm, a Senior at Penn Yan High School, were chosen King and Queen.

Placing six on the Varsity basketball team, two on the Varsity cheerleading squad, and about fifty per cent of our class in the band and chorus, we expect to have a good year in both the sport and musical fields. With many surprises in store, we will reach our destination on June 28, 1954, as educated young men and women of the future.

CLASS PROPHECY

Dick LaDue, the prosperous young business man who has made it a point to change business into pleasure, has invited the Class of '54 to his "Tricky Turn-In Chateau" for the annual dance and banquet which is held each year by one of the members of the 1954 graduating class. His wife, the former Peggy Roose, is tuning up the piano for the evening's music.

Delicious odors are issuing from the kitchen where Martha Gifford is preparing the banquet. Her great talent which she discovered while working in Roose's is being put to good use as the chef at the chateau.

We are sorry to report that one of our class members will be unable to attend. Yesterday, a telegram was received from Darrell Weichenthal, the present president of the UN General Assembly. Because of an international conference, he will not be able to leave Russia for the banquet.

The guests are expected to arrive any moment. Yes, here comes a car now, or is it a plane flying low? No, it's Bruce DePew and Jim Gage in Bruce's 550 horse-power Super V-12 Ford. Bruce is the All-American Cattle Raiser of the United States and Jim is a famous jockey at the Santa Anita Race Track. Just last week he won national honors as the Jockey of the Year.

Pulling up to the curb is Jim Norsen and Dick Stell, managers of the Truck Farmers Foundation, and there's Ron Terwilliger who has a farm on the east side of Gorham. We hear that these three are doing very well for themselves.

More arrivals are coming through the door. They are Bev Bickel, Connie Clark, and Lorraine Youngs. Bev and Connie are secretaries for two of the biggest firms in the State and Lorraine has taken to the sky as an airline hostess for the Gorham Airlines which were established just a few years ago.

Once more gazing out the window we see a Dodge truck parking. Why, it's Bob Bergstresser and Shirley Stickler! Bob has one of the largest farms in the Gorham area and Shirley helps him with the farm work. Say who's that in the back of the truck? Flossie Zimmerman of all people. Flossie is the owner of "Flossie's Fine Fruits" roadside stand. She's doing a blooming business. Come in and join the party!

What was that noise? Oh, no, Jean Van Wagner just ran into the curb. It's doubtful if she will ever learn to drive. There's Kay Henry with her. Kay and Jean have just graduated from college. Kay's going to become a teacher and Jean wants to get married. A great ambition for both of them and it's very unlikely that they will fail in either case.

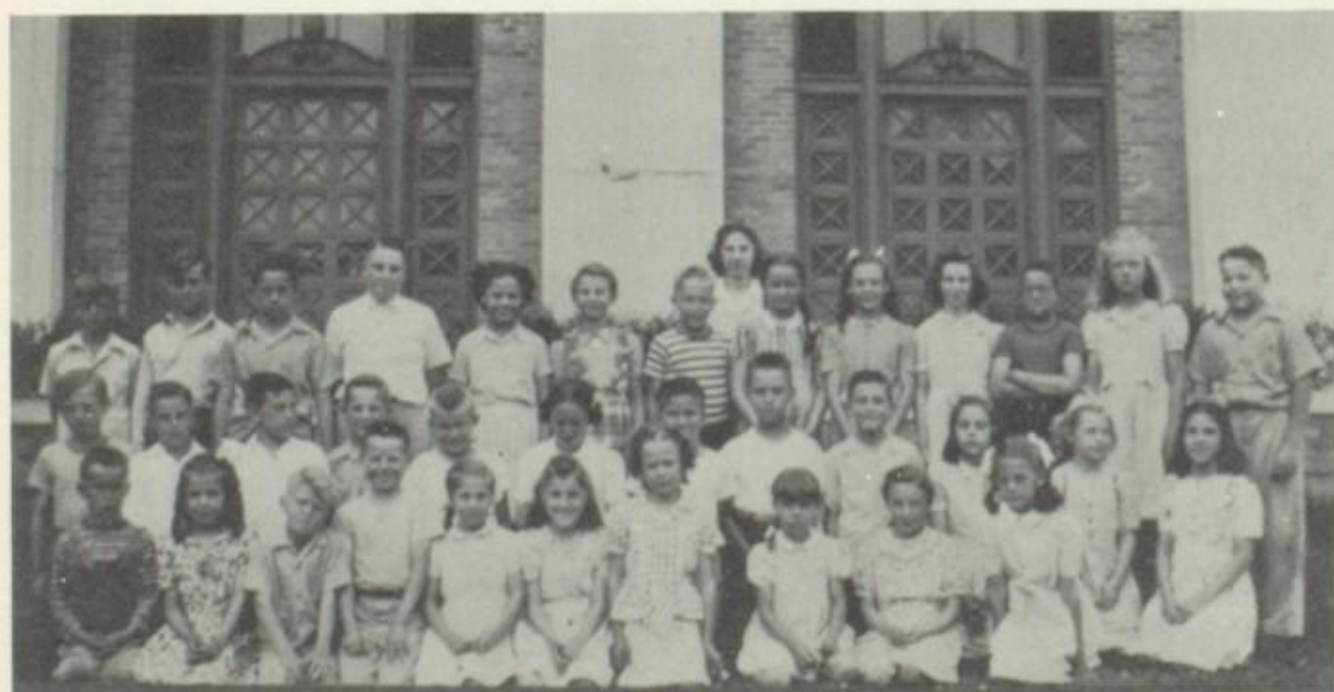

The guests are all assembled around the table waiting for more arrivals. The door is opening now and in comes "Babe" Polmanteer, Lyman Wood, and Joe Frankovitch. Babe is the famous creator of "Joe the Hobo" comic strip. Joe plays the role of pitcher for the Boston Red Sox. He won twenty-six games last season. Lyman, another baseball player, is shortstop for the New York Yankees. Lyman was batting champion of the American League for the past season. Coming in behind them is Charlie McWilliams. Charlie has his own dancing studio up in Beverly Hills.

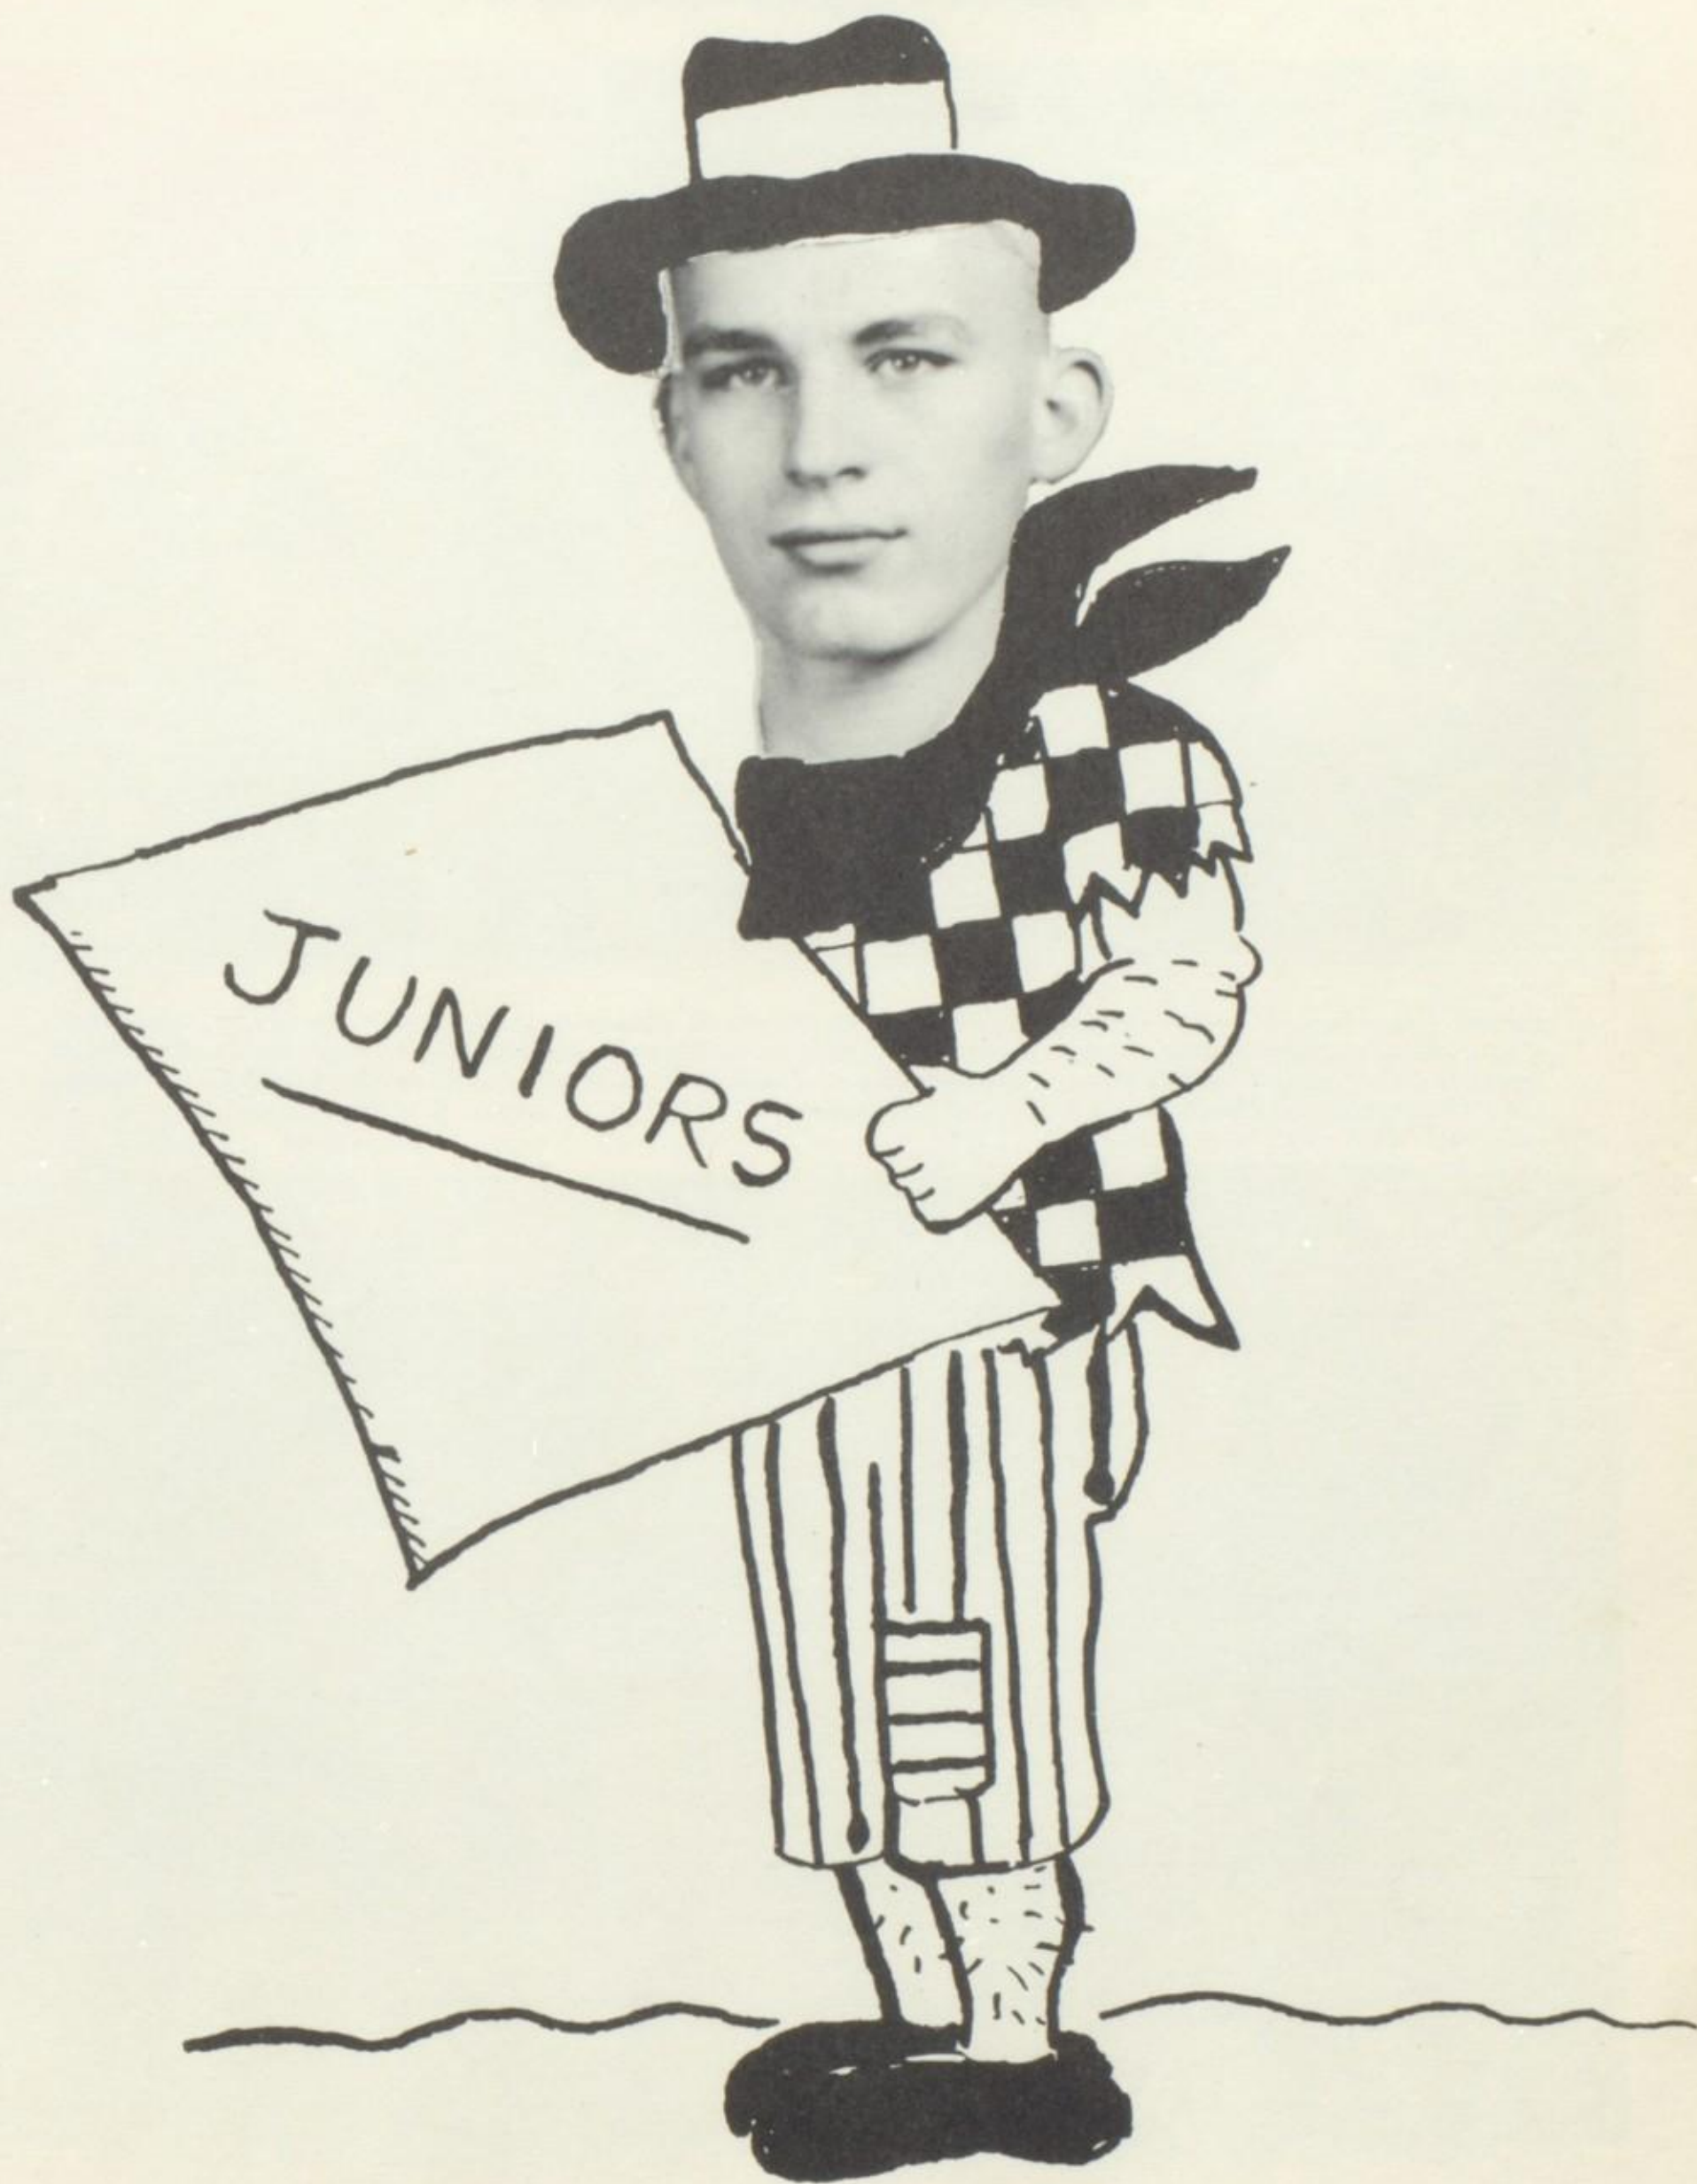

Karen Jensen called and said she would be late. She married a wealthy farmer after graduating and is very happy.

A surprise is in store for the class, as Bob Ellis and his band enter. Bob just finished a tour in Europe where he won international fame being voted as top band of the world. Also entering is Shirley Fillingham who is playing guitar at the Stork Club. Last but not least is Karl Perry who owns a chain of hotels from here to the Texas coast.

Now the whole class is present and the feast begins. A toast in honor of the greatest class ever to graduate from Gorham--The Class of 1954.

SENIOR PLAY

On November 13 and 14 the Senior Class presented their play, "Mr. Barry's Etchings". Mr. Barry (Karl Perry), the versatile printer of two hundred and seven thousand dollars worth of counterfeit currency, managed to turn the tables on the notorious counterfeiters, Fifty Ferris (Jean VanWagner) and Sawbuck Sam (Bob Ellis), with a toy submachine gun. Romance developed between Tom Crosby (Dick LaDue) and Mr. Barry's niece, Evelyn Taylor (Connie Clark), in a hilarious scene in the studio. Kenneth Plunkett, a movie producer who wanted to produce "The Judson Barry Story", was ably portrayed by Babe Polmanteer. Martha Gifford played the part of Mrs. Griswold, wife of the town's most prominent citizen, the undertaker, who heartily dislikes Mr. Barry and his friend, Sam Jordan (Darrell Weichenthal). Several humorous situations were created by the advent of Marvin Pritchard (Bruce DePew), Evelyn's pompous fiance, in a gay nineties bathing suit. Tom Crosby's partner, a dumb Dora news photographer named Daisy Dayton is played by Lorraine Youngs. Additional comedy was provided by Bud (Jim Gage), a young boy who is crazy about model airplanes, Carrie Stanwich (Karen Jensen) whose ancestors founded the town of Stanwich, and Mrs. Taylor (Kay Henry), Judson Barry's sister.

In spite of the usual minor mishaps, the play went off quite successfully. Midway between the first and second acts a main fuse blew, plunging the stage into darkness. In one performance Tom Crosby accidentally wore Evelyn's engagement ring onto the stage but managed to hide it with his hat.

Credit is due to the backstage crew who kept things going during the performance. Dick Stell did a good job of securing all the necessary properties and acting as stage manager. Sound effects and lighting were controlled by Jim Norsen and Mr. Beebe supervised construction of the set. The task of directing the show was performed very well by Mr. Smingler with assistance from student director Peggy Roose. Several students from Hobart came down to assist Bev Bickel and Flossie Zimmerman with some difficult make-up problems. As a whole, the play was a great success and it is our sincere wish that next year's Seniors have as much fun with their Senior Play as we did.

With only five regulars returning, the J.V.'s have had a fairly successful season winning nearly one-half of their games. Their toughest loss was a close game with Rushville in a double overtime.

Their bench strength consists mostly of freshmen who have been improving steadily and are expected to be next year's J.V. team. With a little more know-how and experience, these freshmen will soon be strong contenders for the varsity in the near future.

Under the guidance of a new coach, the varsity basketball team has shown some more improvement this year. After winning the first game, which built up school morale, the team has slowed down and the hopes of a better season have not been fulfilled. Even though they have lost many games, the spirit of the team and spectators has not died.

In June we will lose such valuable men as Joe Frankovitch, Karl Perry, Darrell Weichenthal, Jim Norsen, Babe Polmanteer, and Lyman Wood.

With some help from this year's J. V. squad, next year's team should show some improvement.
